THURSDAY EVE., AUGUST 14, 1884

HON. ALPHONSO HART will be the Republican candidate for Congress in the Brown County, Ohio, district.

CARTER County has instructed unanimously for Powers for Congress, and has expressed no second preference.

Ir is estimated that the combined membership of Free Masons in all parts of the world reaches 14,160,000.

HON. SAM. RANDALL will take the stump in a short time for Cleveland and Hendricks, and will do good service for the cause.

THE Boston Transcript, heretofore Republican, has announced itself opposed to Blaine and Logan, and in favor of Cleveland and Hendricks.

THE Anti-Monopolists and Greenbackers of Illinois have called an opposition State Convention to one already held by another wing of these parties.

THE big efforts of the Republicans to carry Southern States will be confined to West Virginia and Florida. In the men. meantime the Democrats will endeavor to bag Wisconsin and Illinois.

THE anti-horse thief society in Brown and Adams Counties, Ohio, has been in successful operation since 1879, and its work has been so thorough that such thefts are now of rare occurrence in the territory where the society operates.

Ir the horrible story is true that cannibalism was resorted to by the survivors and his son were passing the Episcopal of the Greely Arctic Expedition, it stands as a strong argument against such expeditions generally. If this expedition was reduced to such straits, it is more than probable that former ones were in like extremity. If successfully accomplished no particular good will be derived, and the scientific results arrived at will in no way compensate for the loss of life, and the amount of suffering that attend such voyages.

JOHN C. UNDERWOOD, late manager and Treasurer of the News-Journal, has sued the Cincinnati Evening Post for $50,000, alleging that his reputation for he had killed both men, at once fled. Several honesty has been damaged by articles in of the men who were in ambush with Welsh that paper concerning his management of the News-Journal. He has employed Hon. John G. Carlisle, Wm. Ramsey, J. B. Foraker and Lawrence Maxwell to prosecute the case. The Post in noticing the filing of the suit, says that its information was obtained from prominent business men connected with the News-Journal, who, after publication, endorsed the statements, and advised against retraction.

When the World Will End.

When lawyers fail to take a fee, and juries never disagree; when politicians are content, and landlords don't collect their rents; when parties smash all the machines, and when Boston folks give up lifty per cent. will be paid depositors this their beans; when naughty children all die young, and girls are born without a tongue; when ladies don't take time to has been heard yet of Dickinson's whereshop, and office-holders never flop; when abouts. preachers cut their sermons short, and all our folks to church resort; when back subscribers all have paid, and editors have fortunes made, such happiness will sure potend, this world must soon come to an end.

The Lexington Press says: Yesterday morning John Bush, the condemned murderer in jail here, surrendered to jailer Wilkerson three jeweler's saws and a rope, saying he had told a thousand lies about his attempt to escape, and would tell no more, nor make any more attempts to escape. NEW YORK, Aug. 14.-Under Sheriff Wanock, of Queens County, L. I., arrested Gustave Wolf and his wife, proprietors of Wolf's boarding-house in Great Neck. The officer hastened to the depot, taking the first train for Long Island City, and lodged his prisoners in the county jail. The villagers were in a quandary as to the charge upon which they had been arrested, but it soon leaked out that hey were the defendants in a civil suit instiuted by Emeline Von Darven, until a week ago ne of their boarders. Miss Von Darven enpaged board for the season last month, agreeng to pay weekly in advance. Some of the contlemen boarders in the house were attenive to her, and it is said that the other lady coarders became jealous of her, and, led by Mrs. Wolf, informed the latter's husband that Miss Von Darven must leave the house. Mr. Wolf at first objected, as "she was such a charming person, and paid her bills promptly," but later he decided to eject her, but she declined to leave the premises, as she had paid for a week's board, and the week would not end for four days. Wolf then began to use abusive language to ais boarder and attempted to put her down stairs. In both affairs he was assisted by his wife. Miss Von Darven came to this city and retained a lawyer to bring suit against the Wolfs for defamation of character and for assault. Four suits have been begun: One against Wolf for assault, for $2,000; one for defamation of character, for $10,000, and two against Mrs. Wolf. Mrs. Wolf was neld in $2,000 bail and Mr. Wolf in $2,250. Up to a late hour they had not found bonds-

A Father and Son Shot Down by a Villain.

LANCASTER, S. C., Aug. 14.—For some time a feud has existed between the families of John Bowers and B. F. Welsh.

Bowers and his son George drove to Lancaster Wednesday and the friends of the parties inticipated a row. All day Bowers remained in Lancaster but there were no signs of trouble. In the afternoon he, with his son, started to drive home. About this time the Welsh boys disappeared from town. Bowers thurch when the brace got loose, and the eller Bowers stopped to fix it. As he was dong so B. F. Welsh stepped from behind the thurch with a double barreled shotgun in his

Behind the church was a party of Welsh's friends, who remained in readiness to help him. Welsh fired at the old man. The charge struck Bowers' hat brim and carried part of it away, and the old man fell forward. Welsh then fired the second barrel at young Bowers, the charge taking effect in the side of his face and severing a large artery. The shotgun being empty, Welsh drew a pistol and fired at the young man again. The bullet entered young Bowers' groin. The team in the meanhad become frightened and dashed off, being stopped some distance down the road by a colored man. Welsh, supposing have been placed under arrest. Young Bowers cannot recover.

Bank Examiner Payne and Two Assistants Make Their Appearance. NEW YORK, Aug. 14,-State Bank Examer Payne, and two assistants, made their nwelcome appearance at the suspended Wall reet Bank and began a thorough investigaon of the institution, against the protest of President Evans. Nothing satisfactory can be learned relative to what action was taken at the meeting of the Board of Directors. It s reported that the stockholders will not be paid twenty-five per cent., and that the detalcation of Cashier Dickinson will be in the neighborhood of $500,000. Examiner Payne stated at the Board meeting that the deposits were $1,200,000, quick loans, $700,000, and msh $300,000, but of this is expected that week and a receiver will probably be apcomted. Mr. Payne will not complete his work before the close of the week. Nothing
